

Small businesses have hailed the first ever Farmers Market organized by MCCCCI saying it's a step in the right direction to provide the much needed visibility especially to small businesses. James Manda of James Crafts Works, noted that the city of Blantyre did not have a market that uses the Farmers Market concept.

Manda said: "I encourage MCCCCI to keep its word to hold these markets every month. It shouldn't be just a one off thing,"

